

The Woman in sin (John 8)

Jennifer René Daniel

She lay among the shouting throng
Condemned, accused, despised
A woman who had stooped so low
'Kill her', the angry cries!

And then the Saviour came, drew near
He gazed upon their rage
Read the lifebook of their lives
Each selfrighteous page

Bending and writing in the sand
Men did blush for shame
Was it hidden sin exposed
Written name by name?

'He who hath no sin', cried He
Has the right to throw
Stones upon this wretched soul
Covered here below

Stealthily they slunk away
Guilt had silenced them
Then the Master turned to her
'Child', I'll not condemn

But I call thee to repent
Go and sin no more
From the darkness to the light
Pass - I am the door!
