A Haunting Melody

Jennifer René Daniel

In the midst of all the clamour
That a Christmas Season brings
There is a haunting melody
That in the chaos rings

It points to His perfection
As the chosen Lamb of God
As countless steps are chronicled
Upon the path He trod

It laughs that death was powerless
To keep Him prisoner
Triumphant He arose on high
Our mighty Conquerer

It speaks of God's compassion
Of His boundless love and grace
A manger with a baby small
To save the human race

It whispers of the price He paid
While on the cross He hung
Our sins upon His body laid
He our forgiveness won

And thus amidst the turmoil
Of the Christmas holiday
There is a haunting melody
That blesses me each day

Our Dear Friends,

We are grateful for each invitation Keith received to preach this year across South Africa and North America.

A detailed survey is given overleaf.

We thank Don and Vicki Courville, their family and the Maranatha Baptist Church at Mt. Vernon, Missouri in the USA for co-ordinating Keith's annual ten week tour of America and for distributing our bi-monthly newsletter there. The sacrifices they have made to enable us to continue ministering so broadly across their land are deeply appreciated.

Special thanks to Alta Ferreira who so ably carries our office workload here in South Africa.

Taken Home To Glory

Edith Brandt, wife of Pastor Albert Brandt, former workers in the AEB who also pastored the King Williams Town Lutheran Church in the Eastern Cape for many years where Keith had the privilege of ministering on numerous occasions. Her godly life was exemplary to all and her faithfulness and constant encouragement to us was deeply appreciated.

Colin Peckham who served God for many years as Principal at both the AEB Bible College here in Cape Town, South Africa and the Faith Mission Bible College in Edinburgh, Scotland. "No other person ever influenced me so greatly in my life and ministry as Mr Peckham. I shall be eternally grateful for him." Keith Daniel

May God comfort and console both Pastor Brandt, Mrs Peckham and their families.
